

Dalip Singh Saund

...was the first Asian-American to be elected to the United States Congress! Dalip was born in India and immigrated to America to study and later stayed in California to become a farmer. He would go on to campaign to allow people of South Asian descent to become naturalized American citizens. Dalip applied to become an American citizen after the law was passed, and in 1955 he was elected to Congress!

Main Street Patrol
Learn more about us:

